ASL NEWSLETTER

January 2004

- In Memoriam: Willem Blok. Professor Willem Blok died tragically in an automobile accident on November 30, 2003 in Chicago, Illinois. He was 56 years old. Born and educated in Holland, he received his doctorate from the University of Amsterdam in 1976. He then held academic positions in Holland and Canada, prior to coming to Chicago in 1983 to assume a position at the University of Illinois at Chicago.

Blok was internationally recognized for his mathematical research in the areas of algebra and logic, and on ways these two areas interact. His publications include more than fifty articles and a book, Algebraizable Logics, co-authored with D. Pigozzi. At UIC, he was a prize-winning teacher who won praise for his instruction at all levels, from first-year undergraduate classes to advanced graduate seminars.

He was a man of wide-ranging intellect and interests. An accomplished musician, he played in several regular string quartets and was a connoisseur of baroque and classical performance styles, both instrumental and vocal. He was an avid naturalist, expert bird-watcher, and a passionate traveller. He is survived by his wife, Mary Ogilvie, and his son, Philip.

- The 2003 ASL Election. The ASL membership has elected Alexander Kechris (Caltech) as President, Samuel R. Buss (UC San Diego) as Vice President, Albert Visser (Utrecht) and Alex J. Wilkie (Oxford) to the Executive Committee, and Sergey S. Goncharov (Novosibirsk) and Gerhard Jäger (Bern) to the Council. Their terms of office are for three years beginning January 1, 2004. The Nominating Committee consisted of Martin Grohe, David Marker, Donald A. Martin (Chair), Yiannis Moschovakis, Charles Parsons, Wolfram Pohlers, Theodore Slaman, and Scott Weinstein.
- The 2003 Sacks Prize Awarded to I. Ben Yaacov. The ASL Committee on Prizes and Awards has selected Itay Ben Yaacov of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology as the recipient of the 2003 Sacks Prize. Ben Yaacov received his Ph.D. in 2002 from the University of Paris VII, under the supervision of Daniel Lascar. His thesis, Théories simples: constructions de groupes et interprétabilité généralisée, was cited by the Committee as, “a major contribution to pure model theory on two intimately related fronts: an extension of simplicity theory beyond the first order context, and the interpretability of groups in simple theories.” The prize consists of a cash award plus five years free membership in the ASL.
- Reduced Dues for Individuals and Institutions in Developing Economies. The ASL recently approved a program to offer reduced dues for individual and institutional members in developing economies. For 2004, the reduced dues are $18 for individuals and $130 for institutional members. These dues apply to individuals and institutions residing in countries whose economies are classified as ‘lower middle income’ or below on the World Bank’s annual list. For further information, visit http://www.aslonline.org/membership_outreach.html or contact the ASL Business Office: ASL, Box 742, Vassar College, 124 Raymond Avenue, Poughkeepsie, New York 12604, USA; Tel: 1-845-437-7080; Fax: 1-845-437-7830; email: asl@vassar.edu.
- Access to Current JSL and BSL for ASL Members via Project Euclid. Access to the full-text of current issues of The Bulletin of Symbolic Logic and The Journal of Symbolic Logic has now been made available to all ASL members electronically via Project Euclid. Individual members who wish to gain access should follow these instructions: (1) go to <http://projecteuclid.org>; (2) in the ‘for subscribers’ tab, click on ‘Log in for Existing Subscribers’; (3) click on “create a profile here” in the center of the login page; (4) fill in at least the required fields (those in red) in the top half of the form, setting Euclid ID and Password to anything you wish, but remember these for future logins; (5) go to the bottom half of the form (“Personal Subscription Registration”); (6) select the Bulletin of Symbolic Logic and the Journal of Symbolic Logic, and for each enter your individual membership ID number (you will find this number on your journal mailing label, near the barcode); (7) at the bottom of the form, click the 'Create Profile' button, at which point users should then see a confirmation screen and should have access to full-content of the BSL and JSL. If you need help obtaining your membership ID number, contact Paul Arroyo of the University of Illinois Press at parroyo@uillinois.edu. If you have any trouble using the Personal Subscription Registration form, please contact Euclid-L@cornell.edu.

- JSTOR Access for ASL Members. Access to the full-text of The Bulletin of Symbolic Logic for the years 1995–2003 and to The Journal of Symbolic Logic for the years 1936–1999 is available to all ASL members via JSTOR. If you already have obtained a JSTOR account for the Journal, you also have access to the Bulletin via the same account. To obtain your temporary username and password for accessing the Bulletin and the Journal, or if you have misplaced your account information, contact Paul Arroyo of the University of Illinois Press at parroyo@uillinois.edu. To register your account, go to <http://www.jstor.org/logon> and enter your temporary username and password. If you need help registering, download the Individual Access Logon handout at http://www.jstor.org/about/indiv_support/ or contact JSTOR at jstor-info@umich.edu.
- Kurt Gödel: Collected Works, Volumes IV and V. The last two volumes of the collected works of Kurt Gödel, edited by Solomon Feferman, John W. Dawson, Warren Goldfarb, Charles Parsons, and Wilfrid Sieg, have now been published by Oxford University Press. ASL members are entitled to a 35% discount on all volumes. Visit <http://www.aslonline.org/books-godel.html> or contact the ASL Business Office for details.
- Perspectives in Mathematical Logic Volumes Available. This series is now being published by the Association for Symbolic Logic, under the new name Perspectives in Logic. Owing to the generosity of Springer-Verlag, the former publisher of the series, the ASL has made the existing stock of certain books in the series available to the logic community at low prices, as has been done with the Lecture Notes in Logic. (Some books in the series will continue to be made available by Springer-Verlag and others will be reprinted by ASL.) An order form for the volumes sold by the ASL can be found online at <http://www.aslonline.org/files/Perspectivesorderform.pdf>. This form also can be obtained by writing to the ASL Business Office.

ASL MEETINGS

- Student Travel Awards: The 2004 ASL Annual Meeting, 2004 ASL European Summer Meeting, and other ASL or ASL-Sponsored Meetings. The ASL will make available modest travel awards to graduate students in logic and (for the European Summer Meeting only) to recent Ph.D.'s so that they may attend the 2004 ASL Annual Meeting in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, or the 2004 ASL European Summer Meeting in Torino, Italy; see below for information about these meetings. Student members of the ASL also may apply for travel grants to other ASL or ASL-sponsored meetings. To be considered for a Travel Award, please (1) send a letter of application, and (2) ask your thesis supervisor to send a brief recommendation letter. The application letter should be brief (preferably one page) and should include: (1) your name; (2) your home institution; (3) your thesis supervisor's name; (4) a one-paragraph description of your studies and work in logic, and, in the case of an ASL student member application to attend an ASL or ASL-sponsored meeting other than the Annual Meeting or European Summer Meeting, a paragraph indicating why it is important to attend the meeting; (5) your estimate of the travel expenses you will incur; (6) (for citizens or residents of the USA) citizenship or visa status; and (7) (voluntary) indication of your gender and minority status. Women and members of minority groups are strongly encouraged to apply. In addition to funds provided by the ASL, the program of travel grants to the ASL Annual Meeting and the European Summer Meeting is supported by a grant from the US National Science Foundation; NSF funds may be awarded only to students at USA universities and to citizens and permanent residents of the USA. Air travel paid for using NSF funds must be on a US flag carrier. Application by email is encouraged; put "ASL travel application" in the subject line of your message.

For the 2004 ASL Annual Meeting, applications and recommendations should be received before the deadline of March 8, 2004, by the Program Chair: Sergei Artemov, Program in Comp. Sci., CUNY Graduate Ctr., 365 Fifth Ave. #4319, New York, NY 10016, USA; email: SArtemov@gc.cuny.edu.

For the 2004 ASL European Summer Meeting, applications and recommendations should be received before the deadline of April 1, 2004, by the Organizing Committee: LC2004, Department of Mathematics, University of Torino, via Carlo Alberto 10, 10123 Torino, Italy; email: lc2004@unito.it.

For ASL student member travel grants to other ASL or ASL-sponsored meetings, applications and recommendations should be received at least three months prior to the meeting at the ASL Business Office: ASL, Box 742, Vassar College, 124 Raymond Avenue, Poughkeepsie, New York 12604, USA; Fax: 1-845-437-7830; email: asl@vassar.edu. Decisions will be communicated at least two months prior to the meeting.

- 2004 ASL Spring Meeting (with APA). April 23–24, 2004, Chicago, Illinois. This meeting will be held jointly with the Annual Meeting of the Central Division of the American Philosophical Association, which will take place April 22–25. The program includes three invited sessions. The first, on Frege's Logic, will be chaired by M. Kremer and includes the speakers W. Goldfarb and E. Reck, and the commentator, P. Sullivan. The session on The Philosophy of Proof Theory, chaired by T. Bays, includes the speakers J. Avigad and M. Detlefsen, and the commentator, W. Tait. The third session, on Category Theory and Structuralism, will be chaired by S. Awodey, and includes the speakers G. Hellman and C. McLarty, and the commentator, D. Scott. The Program Committee members for the ASL meeting are: S. Awodey, T. Bays, and M. Kremer (Chair). An advance registration form and hotel reservation form are included in this Newsletter mailing. For further information, visit the APA website, <http://apa.udel.edu/apa>.
- 2004 ASL Annual Meeting. May 19–23, 2004, Carnegie Mellon University, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Invited speakers include: J. Baldwin, L. Beklemishev, M. Hallett, V. Harizanov, S. Jackson, K. Kunen, A. Macintyre, P. Maddy, J. Miller, M. Rathjen, and P. Vitanyi. The Fifteenth Annual Gödel Lecture will be delivered by M. Rabin, and special lectures will be given by B. Howard and J. McCarthy. Tutorials will be offered by J. Avigad and T. Pitassi. There also will be special sessions, with organizers in parentheses, on Gödel and mathematical logic in the twentieth century (S. Feferman and W. Sieg), logic and games (R. Parikh), and set theory (E. Schimmerling and J. Cummings). The members of the Program Committee are: S. Artemov (Chair), T. Bartoszyński, D. Hirschfeldt, M. C. Laskowski, and W. Sieg. The Local Organizing Committee members include: J. Avigad (Chair), S. Awodey, L. Blum, J. Cummings, E. Schimmerling, and W. Sieg.

This year, the 2004 Mathematical Foundations of Programming Semantics (MFPS) Meeting, to begin on May 23, 2004, will co-locate with the ASL Annual Meeting. Several joint activities are planned, including a special lecture by D. Scott, a panel discussion on mathematical logic in computer science education, organized by J. Hirst, and a special session on the logical foundations of programming semantics, organized by S. Awodey. For more information about MFPS, visit <http://www.math.tulane.edu/MFPS.html>.

A registration form and hotel information is enclosed in this mailing. Electronic registration is available at http://www.aslonline.org/meeting_registration.html. For additional information about the ASL meeting, visit <http://www.aladdin.cs.cmu.edu/asl/>.

- 2004 ASL European Summer Meeting (Logic Colloquium '04). July 25–31, 2004, Torino, Italy. Invited speakers include: J. T. Baldwin, T. Bartoszyński, A. Berarducci, A. Marcone, G. Mints, M. Moellerfeld, F. Stephan, G. Sundholm, G. Tamburrini, M. Valeriote, and H. Woodin. Tutorials will be offered by A. Kechris and S. Solecki (Descriptive set theory, analysis and dynamical systems), T. Scanlon (Geometric stability theory), R. Solomon (Computable Algebra), and R. Willard (The past and the future of universal algebra). Special sessions in model theory, proof theory, and universal algebra, and a panel discussion on philosophical and historical issues also will be held. The members of the Program Committee are: T. Arai, D. DeJongh, W. Goldfarb, G. Hjorth, S. Lempp, G. Lolli, D. Marker, D. Martin, R. McKenzie, W. Pohlers (Chair), W. Sieg, A. Sorbi, and A. Wilkie. The Local Organizing Committee includes: A. Andretta (Chair), S. Berardi, R. Camerlo, U. De Liguoro, M. Dezani, A. Marcone, N. Olivetti, and D. Zambella. Abstracts of contributed talks submitted by ASL members will be published in The Bulletin of Symbolic Logic if they satisfy the Rules for Abstracts (see below). Abstracts—hard copy or email—should be received before the deadline of April 16, 2004 at the official meeting address: LC2004, Department of Mathematics, University of Torino, via Carlo Alberto 10, 10123 Torino, Italy; email: lc2004@unito.it. For further information visit <http://lc2004.unito.it>.

- 2005 ASL Annual Meeting. March 19–22, 2005, Stanford, California. The members of the Program Committee are: J. Mitchell, M. Rathjen, S. Shapiro, R. Solomon, P. Speissegger, and J. Steel (Chair). The members of the Local Organizing Committee include: A. Arana, S. Feferman, G. Mints, J. Mitchell, and R. Sommer.
- Rules for Abstracts. The rules for abstracts of contributed talks at ASL meetings (including those submitted “by title”) may be found at http://www.aslonline.org/rules_abstracts.html. Please note that abstracts must follow the rules as set forth there; those which do not conform to the requirements will be returned immediately to the authors submitting them. Revised abstracts that follow the rules will be considered if they are received by the announced deadline.

ASL SPONSORED MEETINGS

- Third International Symposium on Foundations of Information and Knowledge Systems (FoIKS 2004). February 17 - 20, 2004, Vienna, Austria. The goal of the biennial FoIKS symposia is to bring together researchers working on the theoretical foundations of information and knowledge systems and to attract researchers working in mathematical fields such as discrete mathematics, combinatorics, logics, and finite model theory, who are interested in applying their theories to research on database and knowledge base theory. The Co-chairs of the Program Committee are D. Seipel and J.-M. Turull-Torres. T. Eiter is in charge of local organization. For further information, visit <http://foiks.massey.ac.nz/foiks04/>.
- Nineteenth Annual IEEE Symposium on Logic in Computer Science (LICS 2004). July 14–17, 2004, Turku, Finland. The LICS Symposium is an annual international forum on theoretical and practical topics in computer science that relate to logic in a broad sense. LICS 2004 will be held in conjunction with the thirty-first International Colloquium on Automata, Languages, and Programming (ICALP 2004). The LICS Program Chair is H. Ganzinger (email: hg@mpi-sb.mpg.de). Workshops are planned for July 12–13 and July 18. For further information about LICS, visit <http://www.lfcs.informatics.ed.ac.uk/lics>; for additional information about ICALP, see <http://www.math.utu.fi/ICALP04/WScall.html>.
- Eleventh Workshop on Logic, Language, Information and Computation (WoLLIC’2004). July 19–22, 2004, Fontainebleau, Paris, France. This is the eleventh in a series of workshops intended to foster interdisciplinary research in pure and applied logic. The invited speakers tentatively include: T. Ehrhard, K. Meer, D. Niwinski, L. Ong, G. Paun, A. Rabinovich, and S. Shieber. The Program Committee includes: Z. Adamowicz, D. Beauquier, F. Cucker, M. Dezani, G. Gottlob, E. Graedel, E. Grandjean, I. Guessarian, G. Huet, M. Hyland, G. Nadathur, G. Rozenberg, A. Slissenko, and I. Walukiewicz. The members of the Organizing Committee are: G. Bellin, A. Carbone, P. Cegielski (Co-Chair), A. Grisi de Oliveira, and R. de Queiroz (Co-Chair). Graduate students and recent Ph.D.’s in logic may apply for modest grants to attend the workshop; the deadline for applications is March 1, 2004. For further information, visit <http://www.cin.ufpe.br/~wollic/wollic2004/>.

CALENDAR OF OTHER MEETINGS (Also see <http://www.aslonline.org>.)

- Ninth Estonian Winter School in Computer Science (EWSCS’04). February 29–March 5, 2004, Palmse, Estonia. EWSCS is a series of regional-scope international winter schools held annually in Estonia, whose main objective is to expose graduate students in computer science to frontline research topics usually not covered within the regular curricula. Courses will be offered by: S. Artemov, R. Freivalds, A. Jung, M. Naor, and M. Sudan. For further information, visit <http://www.cs.ioc.ee/yik/schools/win2004/>.
- Tenth SouthEastern Logic Symposium. March 6–7, 2004, Gainesville, Florida. Invited speakers include: V. Harizanov, D. Hirschfeldt, A. Miller, I. Neeman, S. Solecki, R. Solomon, and S. Todorcevic. For further information, visit <http://www.math.ufl.edu/~zapletal/ConferenceInformation.htm>.

Calendar of other meetings continued on separate sheet

- Boise Extravaganza in Set Theory (BEST). March 20–22, 2004, Boise, Idaho. Invited speakers include: D. Aspero, D. Burke, J. Clemens, and K.P. Hart. The organizers are J. Moore and S. Zoble. Limited financial support is available, in particular for graduate students. For further information, visit <http://math.boisestate.edu/~best/>.
- Cardinal Arithmetic at Work. March 23–29, 2004, Jerusalem, Israel. This workshop, whose focus is cardinal arithmetic and its applications, is intended for advanced graduate and post-doctoral students. Invited speakers include: M. Foreman, S. Geschke, M. Gitik, R. Jensen, I. Juhasz, M. Kojman, W. Mitchell, S. Shelah, S. Todorcevic, H. Woodin, and J. Zapletal. The organizer is M. Kojman. Scholarships covering substantial portions of travel and accommodation are available to qualified applicants; the deadline for applications is February 29, 2004. For further information, visit <http://www.as.huji.ac.il/midrasha04.htm>.
- Seventh International Workshop on Hybrid Systems: Computation and Control (HSCC 2004). March 25–27, 2004, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This event attracts researchers interested in modeling, analysis, and implementation of dynamic and reactive systems involving both discrete and continuous behaviors. Invited speakers include E.M. Clarke and J. Doyle. The workshop Co-Chairs are R. Alur and G.J. Pappas. The deadline for submissions is April 9, 2004. For further information, visit <http://www.seas.upenn.edu/hybrid/HSCC04/>.
- European Joint Conferences on Theory and Practice of Software (ETAPS 2004). March 27–April 4, 2004, Barcelona, Spain. ETAPS is the primary European forum for academic and industrial researchers working on topics relating to Software Science. It is a confederation of five main annual conferences, accompanied by satellite workshops and other events, many of which are of interest to logicians. For further information, visit <http://www.lsi.upc.es/etaps04>.
- Seventh International Symposium on Functional and Logic Programming (FLOPS 2004). April 7–9, 2004, Nara, Japan. This event is a forum for research on all issues concerning functional programming and logic programming. Invited speakers include: M. Hagiya, C. Schuermann, and P. Selinger. For further information, visit <http://logic.is.tsukuba.ac.jp/FLOPS2004/>.
- Social Software. May 27–29, 2004, Copenhagen, Denmark. The study of social interaction utilizing formal and/or systematic modelling techniques has in recent years seen a revival in the social sciences. This is due to a series of new developments and movements in decision theory, game theory and the methodology of model construction. This meeting brings together new foundational research as well as applications in social software from fields such as philosophical logic, sociology, economics and computer science to assess the philosophical and sociological implications arising from the new movements. Invited speakers include: K. Binmore, W. van der Hoek, M. Jiborn, R. Parikh, W. Rabinowicz, R. van Rooij, H. Rott, and B. Skyrms. The members of the Program Committee are P.G. Hansen, V.F. Hendricks, and S.A. Pedersen. For further information, visit <http://www.philog.ruc.dk/phiconf4.html>.
- Federated Conference on Rewriting, Deduction and Programming (RDP'04). May 31–June 5, 2004, Aachen, Germany. This meeting consists of the following events: the Fifteenth International Conference on Rewriting Techniques and Applications (RTA'04), the International Workshop on Higher-Order Rewriting (HOR'04), the Fifth International Workshop on Rule-Based Programming (RULE'04), Thirteenth International Workshop on Functional and (Constraint) Logic Programming (WFLP'04), Working Group 1.6 on Term Rewriting (WG 1.6), the Fourth International Workshop on Reduction Strategies in Rewriting and Programming (WRS'04), and the Seventh International Workshop on Termination (WST'04). The Conference Chair is J. Giesel. For more information, visit <http://www-i2.informatik.rwth-aachen.de/RDP04/>.
- Logic, Algebra, and Geometry. June 1–7, 2004, St. Petersburg, Russia. The main themes of the meeting include model theory, descriptive and combinatorial set theory, combinatorial group theory and connections of these areas with other areas of mathematics. Invited speakers include: J. Baldwin, A. Blass, J. Brendle, P. Cameron, Yu. Ershov, M. Forti, S. Gao, M. Gavrilovich, E. Gordon, G. Hjorth, T. Hyttinen, O. Lessmann, M. di Nasso, O. Spinas, J. Steprans, S. Thomas, S. Todorcevic, V. Tolstykh, B. Velickovic, and A. Vershik. Tutorials will be offered by S. Gao, O. Lessmann, and A. Vershik. The Co-Chairs of the Program Committee are A. Vershik and Y. Zhang. For further information, visit <http://www.pdmi.ras.ru/EIMI/2004/lag/app.html>.

- First International Symposium on Applications of Constraint Databases (CDB'04). June 12–13, 2004, Paris, France. Held in conjunction with SIGMOD-PODS 2004 (see below), this symposium aims to bring together people from several diverse areas that can contribute to the practice and the application of constraint databases. Among the topics of interest are: new and future directions in constraint database research; constraints over domains other than the reals; improving implementation of constraint database systems, in particular of query evaluation; efficient quantifier elimination; and applications. Invited speakers include: J. Heintz, L. Libkin, and A. Podelski. For further information, visit <http://www.luc.ac.be/cdb04>.
- ACM SIGMOD/PODS 2004 Conference. June 13–18, 2004, Paris, France. This annual event brings together the ACM SIGMOD International Conference on Management of Data (SIGMOD 2004) and the ACM SIGMOD-SIGACT-SIGART Symposium on Principles of Database Systems (PODS 2004). The Chair of the Program Committee for SIGMOD 2004 is G. Weikum and the Chair of the Program Committee for PODS 2004 is D. Suciu. For more information, visit <http://www.sciences.univ-nantes.fr/irin/SIGMODPODS04/>.
- Eighth Workshop on the Semantics and Pragmatics of Dialogue (Catalogue'04). June 19–21, 2004, Barcelona, Spain. This conference aims to bring together researchers working on the semantics and pragmatics of dialogues in fields such as artificial intelligence, formal semantics and pragmatics, computational linguistics, philosophy, and psychology. Invited speakers include R. Cooper, M. Poesio, and M. Tannenhaus. The Chair of the Program Committee is J. Ginzburg. The deadline for submission of abstracts is March 12, 2004. For further information, visit <http://www.upf.edu/dtf/personal/enricvallduvi/catalog04/>.
- Nineteenth IEEE Conference on Computational Complexity (CCC 2004). June 21–24, 2004, Amherst, Massachusetts. This annual event deals with computational complexity broadly defined. The Chair of the Program Committee is R. Impagliazzo and the Chair of the Conference Committee is L. Fortnow. For further information, visit <http://www.cs.umass.edu/~barring/cc2004>.
- Annual Meeting of the Association for Computational Linguistics. June 21–26, 2004, Barcelona, Spain. The Co-Chairs of the Program Committee are W. Daelemans and M. Walker. The deadline for submission of abstracts is February 25, 2004. For further information, visit <http://www.ac12004.org/>.
- Mathematical Knowledge. June 30–July 2, 2004, Cambridge, England. This meeting aims to engage philosophers, mathematicians, and psychologists in discussing what is distinctive about mathematical knowledge and its mode(s) of acquisition. Invited speakers include: B. Butterworth, S. Carey, M. Colyvan, M. Detlefsen, T. Gowers, A. Kanamori, M. Leng, C. Parsons, A. Paseau, M. Potter, G. Rosen, and C. Wright. For further information, write to phil-maths@lists.cam.ac.uk or visit <http://www.joh.cam.ac.uk/fellows/MCL33/mathconf.html>.
- Sixteenth European Summer School in Logic, Language and Information (ESSLLI-2004). August 9–21, 2004, Nancy, France. The main focus of the European Summer Schools in Logic, Language and Information is on the interface between linguistics, logic and computation. Foundational, introductory and advanced courses together with workshops cover a wide variety of topics within the three areas of interest: Language and Computation, Language and Logic, and Logic and Computation. The ninth ESSLLI Student Session will be held on August 9–20 (visit <http://lingua.fil.ub.es/~lalonso/stusESSLLI04/> for details). ESSLLI-2004 is organized under the auspices of the European Association for Logic, Language and Information (FoLLI). For further information about ESSLLI-2004, visit <http://www.esslli.org/2004>; for further information about FoLLI, see <http://www.folli.org>.

The next Newsletter will be mailed in April, 2004. Items to be included should reach the Secretary-Treasurer before March 15, 2004.

Submitted by Charles Steinhorn, Secretary-Treasurer.
